ABOUT ME

Hello, I am Kurt Gorecki, "just a city boy born and raised in south Detroit". I am a creative problem solver, producer, and developer that possesses a multitude of talents including 2d and 3d Animation, Digital Art Direction, Full Stack Development, and Photography/Cinematography. I have a knack for producing bold, award-winning concepts that stretch across an array of mediums and industries with the robust experience and right balance of inquisition to prototype, direct, and produce these ideas from start to finish... Let's make some magic happen.
